

BLACK BEAUTY (Sergio Cocchi)

Black Beauty Walk your dog
Gotta make our eyes cross
Watching the music shop window
Faking it all right,
When our eyes do finally cross I feel satisfied

But Satisfaction last a moment
This one is no exception, when u pass me by my eyes change suddently direction
When satisfaction is repeated
My rapture's (My Rapture's) been totally completed

CH

The first look was a smile, the second one
You're just checking if I turned to you,
Searching for That feeling we've (just) been expecting
Then you turned to me, Yes you turned to me

VS

And this time , here it really happens
In a loveless place, in a lovers' town
Your green eyes seam fearless
They succeed and drag me on down

The first look was a smile, the second one
You're just checking if I turned to you, 2X
Searching for That feeling we've (just) been expecting
Then you turned to me, Yes you turned to me 2X
Then you turned to me
