

BROKEN

I don't have no money problems
I possess whole loads of things
Objects don't attract me you see
As much as a living human being

Maybe i'm getting too impatient
All these years of bein' alone
Might be me i'm pushing way too hard
Might be me i ain't loving myself enough

So it's you people i'm addressin'
It's a chant of love and pain
'cause it seems to me that we think we're strong But broken souls is what i see around me every day

But now that story's changing
Feeling mighty good about myself
I can still feel a wall around me
Emotions cannot climb in the end

But walls can fall overnight you see Letting some light shining through
If we make it happen, you and me,
Light itself will come from within me and you

So it's you people that i'm talking to It's a chant of sun and rain
But broken souls is all i see around me every day

on repeat: 'cause it seems to me that we can be strong and healing souls is what i'd see around me everyday
