

CRAZY FOOL (Sergio Cocchi)

"wait, remember everything u do can make or break the world you're living in"
"no," he said "this is not possible! you crazy fool, how can you dream I'd believe you? just take a look at all the past and all the lunacy surrounding you right now, we're isolated feeble candles in a storm"

And U may feel that I'm a crazy fool, don't think that I / just don't care about it all And U may feel I live by crazy rules, no fear or doubt / will ever change my will to love

VERSE

"See, i realize what you're going through: a rude awakening / following a glorious dream, is this the fear you're running from? but morning always comes, we're all soon gonna rise / take a look inside the stories out there / all the love you see into a mother's eyes , / we're bright lighthouses, shelters in the storm
