

NECESSARY PAIN (Sergio Cocchi)

Vs

hearin' what you hear Feelin' what you feel,
how can you still believe It's an equal game,
A necessary pain (Emotional) waves hitting you everyday

Yes i do know, we got a lot to learn and this will never ever change (never ever change)

love is standing strong but those mouths we never hear from (No) telling the world how much they care instrum.

Vs 2

got to own a home common sense we got to show turning ourselves into slaves (Slaves, slaves, slaves)
so we had to find a job all the self respect we lost tryin' to live the way we've been told now i'm not here to say you got to carry on this or that way we all happen to be right here, right now

we all think we're doing what we can, we don't wanna be no "yes man!"
and it so hard sometimes to see which way to go

Bridge :

life is pain and pleasure, but it's only what we choose to believe and life we cannot measure we only get to live it

Feelin' what you feel,
how can you still believe How can you believe / How can you still believe It's all an equal game, A necessary pain (necessary pain) these waves hitting you everyday (waves)
