

THINKIN'

Thinkin' Thinkin' Thinkin' keep on Thinkin'
Circles Circles Circles in my mind

I start thinkin' when the morning comes
Still thinkin' at sundown
I think i'm gonna enjoy living
Instead of sortin'out the ups and downs
I gotta face all this madness, i'm thinkin' too much

Thinkin' Thinkin' Thinkin' keep on Thinkin'
It's not leading me anywhere
Circles Circles Circles in my mind
I can't seem to find happiness

For all my life i've been trying to get into my own flow
I was not living the present
Worrying about how things could go, but now i know

Now i'm not saying you shouldn't think before you act
But it's so hard to let go, and that's a fact
Let go of what you've done, for it cannot be changed
Your responsibilities are all that remain
I've gotta face 'em with no fear, cause now i'm better

Thinkin' Thinkin' Thinkin' keep on Thinkin'
It's not leading me anywhere
Circles Circles Circles in my mind
I can't seem to find happiness

I'm just trying to let myself go
I'm just trying to get into my flow
